The Giants beat the Bostons yesterlay, taking two games out of the series of three with the tailenders. The Brooklyns lost to the Phillies, who look two out of three at Washington Park. The Pittsburgs were too much for the Cubs, the champions losing with poor grace. Judging from the way the Cubs are being put out of the pame, they find it difficult to take their medicine like sportsmen. The results:

The Connecticut League is not the only organization hereabouts with a close race. Worcester in the New England League way in the rear all season has made a grand spurt landing in first place on Monday by taking two games from Brockton, the leaders. Yesterday their lead was reduced to six points on a defeat by Brockton. This league also winds up its season Saturday.

Has President Tracy lifted the sus-pension on Mike McCabe of the Paper-makers? Yesterday Mac played in both games against the Senators. Mac was last week suspended for the rest of the season for spiking Umpire Lincoln Sherwood Magee of the Philadelphia Nationals, who almost became a giant when he was mentioned in the Donlin when he was mentioned in the Domin deal, and who was recently suspended by Managen Murray for insubordination, has stated that if anything is deducted from his salary he will never don a Philadelphia uniform again. Magee has been trying to get away from the Quakers for some time.

Included in the line up of the Cuban Stars, who are to play in New Britain on Monday and Tuesday next with the Hanneltes, is Don Louis Padron, last year a Bank Wrecker.

The Hartford fans are arranging for a monster benefit for the Senators at Poll's next week. Already a number of the managers of amateur teams of the capitol city have sent in orders for blocks of seats.

Fred Merkle joined the ranks of the clean up artists and the pinch hitters by poling a triple in the third inning at the Polo grounds yesterday when there were three Glants on the bases. Boston lost 3 to 1.

"Red" Waller pitching for Jersey City yesterday let Providence down with two hits, shutting them out 5 to 0. The Skeeters hit Jimmy Lavender, the former Holyoke twirler at will.

Indications are that Swat McCabe will again lead the league with the stick, at present none of the other contenders are within hailing distance.

Cox, who played first base for New Haven and Springfield at various times this season has been named as an um-pire to succeed Abe Lincoln, the choolmaster, who has resigned.

Ty Cobb is again in trouble. Yesterday in Cleveland a warrant was sworn out charging the great player with assault with intent to kill. Ty beat up the night watchman in the Euclid Hotel in Cleveland on Saturday

Short-stop Guest was the terrific clouter in the game yesterday between New Haven and Northampton, ripping off two triples and a homer out of four

According to the estimate of Garry Hermann, chairman of the National Baseball commission who has the only look at the real figures paid for every player in the major leagues, Owner Comiskey of the White Sox has paid out over $200,000 for players for 1910 to put the Sox again on the baseball map. The youngsters on the Bostons and Athletics tell the story.

not an ogre. He will, however, continue to do winning stunts that no other player can begin to approach, and the Bostons will merely be made aware that Cobb has been in every game and not playing ping pong or bean bag.

"As I have said before, if President Ban Johnson should try to flag, side-track or switch any of the ambition with which Ty Cobb is blessed, he would be doing baseball an injustice and an irreparable injury. But, don't mind, Ban is not so foolish.

"It is a case of sour grapes with the Athletics and their friends, and nothing else. They had the fondest hopes and anticipations of winning the pennant when they began their last series in Detroit, but the clean-up of the Tigers was just simply paralyzing them, and there has been nothing heard but one of those old-time Philadelphila splutters since.

"I still have a vivid recollection of Quaker City fans rooting and squeezing for the Cubs last Fall, as against the Giants, and sectional pride would be cast to the winds again if the same or like conditions should arise. The Giants have never been forgiven in Philadelphia for beating out the Athlettes so convincingly for the world's letics so convincingly for the world's

"I am not rooting for the Detroits as against any Eastern team, but I will take up the cudgels for Ty Cobb every time, or any other player who I think is unjustly abused."

Boston, Sept. 8.—A draw was the decision given by Referee Mofflitt Flaherty, at the conclusion of the twelveround contest between Ad Wolgast of Milwaukee and Matty Baldwin of Charleston at the Armory A. A. last night and Wolgast was robbed of a well earned victory by it. After Wolgast had outscored Baldwin in about every round one of the judges, to the great surprise of the members, declared in favor of Baldwin, while the other marked for the Milwaukee boxer. That put it up to the referee to make a decision and surprise number two was sprung when he made his decision.

That Baldwin lasted through the twelve rounds was somewhat of a surprise, and had not Wolgast loafed as much as he did he would probably have won in a manner that a draw have won in a manner that a draw decision could not have been given. Wolgast boxes much after the style of Nelson, but he has not got two good hands like the champion. He is cool, does not mind a punch, being so strong and rugged that he can stand them. In the ninth round Baldwin was forced to take the count after going to the floor from a succession of rights and lefts to the wind.

Frankle Burns won the verdict in the estimation of a majority of the spectators in his ten-round fight against Packey Hommey at Brown's Club, New York, last night. The battle was furious from start to finish and in the ninth round Burns, who is much bigger and stronger than his opponent, had Hommey nearly out, but he didn't have the punch to finish him. In the second round Hommey him. In the second round Hommey had Burns bleeding from the nose and mouth and also had raised a puff over his left eye, but this didn't feaze the more experienced Burns.

Leach Cross has been practically matched to box Fighting Dick Nelson oh Thursday, September 23, at the Bedford, A. C., Brooklyn. Manager Jim Shortell and brother Sam got together last night, and with the exception of a few minor details, agreed upon the meeting. Nelson has always wanted to fight Leach, and it should be a great card. Both are hard hitters and hard workers, and both men are at their best when mixing with a are at their best when mixing with a slugger.

RANK DECISION

Wolgast Should Have Been Given Award Over Baldwin.

(Special from United Press.) Boston, Sept. 8.—"Robbery" is to-day the cry of Ad Wolgast and nine-tenths of those who last night saw his bout here with Matty Baldwin at the Armory A. A. A decision of draw was given. The little Milwaukee scrapper who wants to fight Nelson for the championship simply battered Baldwin at will. The latter's gameness and staming enabled him to travel the distance, but he was a badly used up scrapper when the final gong rang. Six times in the battle he went to the floor and took the count of nine for the second time in his career.

JOHNSON FAVORITE OVER KAUFMAN IN FIGHT TOMORROW

(Special from United Press.) San Francisco, Sept. 8.—A great bat-tle of heavyweights is expected to-morrow afternoon when Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion. the negro heavyweight champion, meets Al Kaufman in a ten round con-test. Johnson expects to weigh 209 when he crawls through the ropes, while Kaufman declares his weight will be slightly over 200.

Both fighters put in a hard day yesterday, but today they are doing only a little road work." Johnson's seconds will be George Little, Bob Armstrong, Barney Fury, Young Peter Jackson, and Dave Mills. Kaufman's seconds will be Mark Shaughnessy, Jack, Cordell and Lew Taylor dell, and Lew Taylor.

The betting is now ten to four that Johnson will win and two to one that Kaufman stays the whole ten rounds.

We can excuse the partisan rivalry between the neighboring cities of Cleveland and Detroit, for that is natural. but it should be healthy. It appears to me as if the attacks against Cobb are made through pure jealousy. I have never seen him do anything on any ball field that could possibly warrant his being called anything but an honest, fair-minded and ambitious ball player. He is so much superior to many of those players who I have heard have made yellow squeals against him that there is no comparison.

BIG GA ME FOR POLAR SEARCH
